

Folding Utility Trays

Applications at a Glance

Justrite Folding Utility Trays provide reliable, on-the-go containment for small leaks and spills during routine maintenance tasks across a wide range of applications. They combine space-saving portability with the trusted performance professionals rely on. Engineered for quick deployment and regulatory compliance, they are the ideal solution when storage space is limited and flexibility is essential.

Industrial & General Manufacturing

Contain leaks from machinery and vehicles

For containment in tool cleaning or maintenance areas

Contain spills during fluid transfers

Utilities & Energy

During field maintenance of pumps, valves, and generators

Construction & Landscaping

During storage or maintenance for gas-powered or hydraulic tools

Environmental Services

For rapid deployment for leaking containers during spill cleanup operations

Automotive & Fleet Maintenance

During oil changes, filter replacements, and under-vehicle spill containment, including roadside service truck applications

